

Irma District Bereaved of Two Well-known Residents

MR. ROBERT FOREMAN

A fine old western pioneer, Mr. Robert Foreman, passed away at the Blakemore nursing home, Edmonton, on October 30.

Mr. Foreman, who was 80 years and 11 months of age, was born at Woorich, England in November, 1867. He was one of a family of eight children who, with their parents, came to Canada in 1869 and settled at Brampton, later moving to Muskoka where they farmed until 1924 when Robert with his brother, Charlie, bought C.P.R. land in the Gilbert Plains district in Manitoba. Here Mr. Foreman was married to Christine McGregor and made his home at Gilbert Plains until 1924 when he with his wife and children came to live in the Irma district.

Although in failing health for several years Mr. Foreman retained his memory and took a keen interest in life and current events right till the end.

He leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Mrs. M. M. Ross at Belleville, Ont., and two sons, David of Edmonton, and George at Irma. Also three brothers, George and John at Rosseau Muskoka, and Charlie at Gilbert Plains, Man.; two sisters, Mrs. W. Allen at Goderich, and Mrs. Gullett at Perry Sound, Ont. Two other sisters, Mrs. Hattie Smith and Mrs. Emily Driver predeceased him.

The funeral service was held in the Irma United church with Rev. H. W. Inglis officiating.

HELLEN ALBERTA WOOD

Irma and district lost one of its most respected old-time residents when Mrs. James Wood passed away in the Wainwright hospital on Wednesday, November 3, at the age of 90 years.

Mrs. Wood was the former Hellen Alberta Hodgkinson, born Mar. 14, 1868, a native of Smith Falls, Ont., one of a family of twelve, all of whom predeceased her. She came to Irma in October, 1918, and was married in the Irma parsonage to Mr. James Wood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chas. Hocking.

Mrs. Wood's character was a happy blend of originality and common sense and she had a wonderful way with plants and animals. Although poor health kept her at home a great deal she had a group of good friends who always enjoyed an hour spent visiting with her and her husband.

Funeral services were held from the Irma United church on Saturday, November 6. The Rev. H. W. Inglis spoke from the text "Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place through all generations." The ladies' choir sang "Shall We Gather at the River," and Mrs. R. Simmermon soloed "No Night There." Interment was made in the Irma cemetery. F. B. Kirkman, Lougheed, was funeral director.

Donations to the Alberta Protestant Home in memory of Mrs. Wood were from: Her Loving Husband; Mrs. Alma Enger and family; Mr. A. Turnbull; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gulbraa and Carl; Mrs. I. C. Knudson; Mr. J. A. Hedley; Mr. and Mrs. R. Dempsey; Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. W. Masson.

First he acted in New York under Eugene O'Neill, then returned to Montreal, where he has been connected with radio ever since its infancy, as actor, writer and producer. Keen Interest Shown in Curling As Club Organizes for Coming Season

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Curling Club, held the evening of November 4th, laid plans for the coming season. If the liveliness of the discussion which followed the introduction of each motion can be taken as an indication of the interest with which the members approach the winter's sport, we may confidently anticipate the most successful season of our brief, but happy existence. Some of our extremist members are even hoping for cold weather soon, but we take no responsibility for such subversive views.

The Club decided, among other things, to repeat last year's performance by holding an open bonspiel, a mixed bonspiel, and a farmers' bonspiel. The last is scheduled for the week between Christmas and New Years.

A Works Committee under the direction of Mr. C. Smallwood was organized to speed work on the kitchen. Mr. W. Lawson was appointed caretaker for the season.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hurst of Irma when their eldest daughter, Helen Wilma, became the bride of Ralph Thomas Gage, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gage of Portland, Oregon.

The bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of white silk with overskirt of white net and fingertip veil which was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was red roses and baby mums.

Miss Iris Hurst attended her sister in a long dress of soft blue jersey with shoulder-length veil of pink trimmed in blue and her flowers were pink carnations and baby mums.

The best man was Alex Doull of Edmonton.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. W. Inglis. Mrs. R. B. Kirkman played the wedding music and Mrs. R. Simmermon rendered a lovely solo "Because." There were about thirty relatives and friends present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gage left by car for Edmonton where they expect to make their home.

World of Wheat

SAUNDERS AND REDMAN WHEAT

Saunders, a new early variety of wheat, which is expected to displace Red Bobs and Garnet, will be distributed this year to farmers in Alberta and in Northern Saskatchewan who desire to try this new variety. Saunders is rust-resistant, and because the milling and baking value is equal to Marquis it is eligible for the top grades. Saunders is almost as early as Garnet. Six bushels will be the first allotment made. The price will be $4.00 a bushel, F.O.B. shipping point. Applications to be made by farmers to the Dominion Experimental Farms at Lacombe or Beaverlodge in Alberta, or Melfort in Saskatchewan.

Redman is another variety that will be widely used this year by farmers. A good quantity of Certified stocks is available. Redman may in many areas displace Thatcher, being of high milling and baking value, resistant to rust and to stinking smut or bunt and in addition having a good red kernel. Certified Redman at present contains a number of off-types, particularly bearded heads. The actual percent, however, is small. Farmers; therefore, who wish to use this variety should not discount it because of these off-types. In a few years stocks of Redman from off-types will be available.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE CURLERS TO STAGE

AUTOSPIEL DEC. 6-11th

Well, well, along comes a poster in the mails this week announcing an autospiel at Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, from Dec. 6th to 11th, and a chance to win four shiny new automobiles, and name your own make as far as we are concerned, plus a lot of other prizes to lure curlers from here and there. The Portage curlers have put up a brand new rink and this is their way to introduce or induce the top ranking curlers of the prairies to come and get it. Portage La Prairie is some forty or fifty miles west of Winnipeg on the C.N.R. and can be reached within less than 24 hours travelling on the choo-choo, probably a little longer by car. The entry fee is the nominal sum of $100.00 per rink and is limited to 140 rinks. If you believe you have a chance to bring home a brand new car for the wife and family for Christmas, write W. K. Wilton, secretary-manager, Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, accompanied by your entry fee, and then get some high powered curlers to attend the autospiel and bring home the bacon, care preferred.

Our aim has been to increase the provinces' financial strength—only foundation for independent and autonomous government." —Finance Minister Abbott.

A Successful Year

AT THE CONCLUSION OF ANOTHER tourist season the Dominion Travel Bureau has reported a very successful year in this growing and important branch of Canadian industry. Because of our close proximity to the United States, the number of Americans who visit Canada are always an indication of the volume of tourist traffic. This year it is estimated that 4,590,443 American cars entered Canada, which was considerably more than the number which entered in the same period in 1947. The amount of United States currency spent by tourists here this season has not yet been made known, but it is hoped that it will exceed by at least ten per cent. the 235 million American dollars which were brought into Canada during the holiday season last year. This aspect of the tourist business was considered especially important this year because of Canada's low reserve of United States funds.

Increases In Most Provinces

Disastrous floods, which swept British Columbia in the early summer, and extensive forest fires in northern Quebec and Ontario were believed to have been responsible for a considerable decrease in the tourist business in those areas, which normally attract many thousands of visitors. At a Dominion-Provincial tourist conference, held in Ottawa in October, it was reported that there was an increase in tourist trade this year of from one to twelve per cent. over 1947. British Columbia was the only province to report a decrease, the figure for this season being five per cent. less than in the previous year. The Dominion Tourist Bureau reported that as many as 4,500 inquiries were received in one day regarding holiday resorts in Canada, and more than three million pieces of literature were mailed out by the bureau this season.

Land Of Great Natural Beauty

Roads and accommodation are always closely associated with discussions concerning the tourist business. In the past there has been considerable criticism of the facilities provided in some parts of Canada, but the Tourist Bureau reports that this year there were fewer complaints and a greater number of letters of appreciation in this connection. Great progress has been made in improving highways and in raising standards of tourist accommodation, but there is need for further effort in building up this business which has proved to be a most profitable one for the country. The matter of completing the trans-Canada highway is still unsettled, but such a road would be a great asset both in attracting tourist traffic and for the country generally. It is to be hoped that the progress which is now being made in building up the tourist industry will continue, for few countries have greater natural beauty than Canada and it is fitting that it should be enjoyed by visitors from other lands as well as by Canadians themselves.

TURKEY REPRESENTS A GOLD MINE IN THESE DAYS OF SOARING PRICES.—Symbolic of all festive holidays is the turkey, which is becoming noticeably absent from the public's table. The high prices of meat and fowl have lessened the sales of these products, so that most holidays are being celebrated now without the customary fowl on the dining-room table. Above W. Hoover and Comer Snyder of Nobleton, Ont., hold a small gold mine in their hands.—S.N.S. photo.

Chicken Confuses Manitoba Farmer

WINNIPEG, Man.—Amos Vince of Ashern, Man., is very confused.

The cause of his confusion is a chicken that can't make up its mind whether it wants to be a male or a female.

In a letter to the Manitoba Agriculture Department Vince said that he had recently received 12 Lophorn cockerels from the hatchery. However, one of the cockerels started laying eggs. After laying about a dozen eggs the pullet decided that there was no future in eggs and proceeded to do a turn-about.

In less than three days the bird blossomed into a full-feathered cockerel.

Manitoba poultry experts say that the occurrence is rare but has happened before. They say that to their knowledge a male has never become a female but females can become males.

Town Reverts Back To Village

REGINA.—Mortlach, 27 miles west of Moose Jaw and one of the oldest towns in Saskatchewan, has lost its "growing pains".

A declining population has resulted in the town council making application to the provincial government for permission to revert to the status of a village.

And so, after Jan. 1, 1949, the town of Mortlach will officially become the village of Mortlach.

Mortlach's population in 1946, according to the quinquennial census, was given at 255. The population is down from that figure now.

Oil To Ensure Prairie Future

OTTAWA.—Dr. G. S. Hume, Chief of the Geological Survey, Resources Department, said that new discovery of oil in Alberta will make the Prairie Provinces self-sufficient in a short time.

"It is certain that the Prairie Provinces will be self-sufficient and yield a surplus as a result of the discoveries of the Leduc and Redwater wells near Edmonton," he told the Ottawa branch of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Currently the Leduc field is producing more than 500,000 barrels of oil a month. In June the Leduc field surpassed the famed Turner Valley in production.

Dr. Hume said the Redwater field has not started production yet but it contains great potentiality.

He warned that the time is approaching when the west coast will not be able to get sufficient oil by importing from California. Consumption in that state was nearing production level.

"All of our western oil comes from California, so the self-sufficiency of the prairies may be of interest to the west coast."

He doubted if oil from the new Alberta fields will be transported east.

CANNIBALS AMONG FISH

WINNIPEG.—Winnipeg city officials suspect there are cannibals among their gold fish. When the pool in front of the city hall was drained recently, all that remained was 12 old-liners. Normally there would have been many young fish in the pool.

FUNNY And OTHERWISE

The teacher wanted to impress on his class that there was nothing a man could not do if he put his mind to it. Johnny Jones begged to differ.

"Well," said the teacher, "tell me and the class what it is."

"You try to strike a match on a piece of soap," was the answer.

Father: "Your teacher says he can't teach you anything, Bill."

Bill: "I always knew he was no good."

"Sometimes," said the mistress, "it will be necessary for you to help the butler upstairs."

"I understand, madam," replied the new maid, "when he's had one too many."

"Old man: 'Suppose I were to tell you that I was bankrupt—that every cent of my fortune had been swept away—would you still be willing to marry my daughter?'"

"Young Man, (enthusiastically): 'Why of course I would! Such a man as you could easily set to and make another fortune, sir.'"

"My wife doesn't understand me, does yours?"

"Don't know that I ever heard her mention your name."

A forest ranger in Arizona frequently saw an Indian chief riding his horse up the canyon trail, his wife trailing along behind him. "Why is it?" the ranger asked one day, "that you always ride and your wife walks?"

"Because," was the solemn reply, "she no gottum horse."

Johnny, who had been taken to the country for the first time, saw a spider spinning a web between two tall reeds. "Father," he called, "come and see this bug putting up a wireless."

Customer: "I'd like a dollar dinner, please."

Waitress: "Yes, sir—on white or rye, sir?"

EXPERT OPINION ON WOMEN'S FOOTWEAR

TORONTO.—Dr. Robert Smith, Hamilton chiropodist, says that shoes with two-inch heels are ruining the feet of Canadian women.

"If you can live like an Indian, the moccasin is the perfect footwear," he said. "But if you have to live in the city, make it oxfords or loafers. No woman should wear a heel higher than one and three quarters inches. If she does, her whole foot structure will be wrecked."

Alaska Road As Channel For Tourist Trade

VANCOUVER.—Since the U.S. Army's corps of engineers built the Alaska Military Highway through Canada, far-sighted leaders of Western Canada and United States have been stressing the needs and benefits of improved land transportation facilities to Alaska.

William Warne, U.S. assistant secretary of the interior, believes that if the Alaska Highway were properly developed it might channel a tourist trade of almost $100 million yearly into Alaska.

The Alberta provincial highway system joins up with the Alaska Highway via the Edmonton-Dawson Creek link which Premier Manning has announced his government plans to put in shape — relocating some sections, graveling them as rapidly as possible.

British Columbia will tie in with the Alaska Highway at Dawson Creek when the John Hart Highway from there to Prince George is completed.

PLOWING A "PUSH OVER" SAYS GIRL

LINDSAY, Ont.—Blonde, attractive Madeline Huffman of Waterford, Ont., says this business of championship plowing is a push-over. At least, that's the way she has found it.

She took up tractor plowing just two weeks ago and recently was presented with a $40 prize at the plowmen's banquet. That was for winning a girls' tractor class at the International Plowing match last week. But she also placed fourth in a competition at the match.

"The county officials wanted me to plow with a pony tractor," said the smiling 17-year-old. "That's how I happened to take it up. Now that I've found out how easy it is, I'm going to try again next year."

OUR WESTERN TOWNS

MOSSBANK, Sask.

"Biggest Little Village In The South Country"

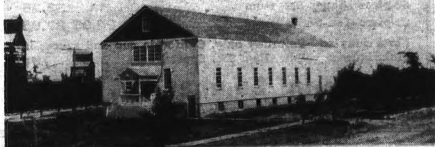

—Haven For Hunters
—Opens 20-Bed Hospital

The new modern 20-bed Sutton-Lake Johnston Union hospital, after almost two years of work preparing and moving, is officially opened with a staff of two doctors and three nurses.

THE first thing seen of the Mossbank site was a trail south of the townsite which was called the Wood Mountain Trail. Until 1906 the district was not touched by white people. In that year surveyors marked out the sites for homesteads, and 1907, the first year that anyone settled in this region. Four men, Robert Jolly, now deceased, Alec Jolly, still on his homestead, John Clarke, now living in Mossbank and Robert Walker now residing at Rainy River were the first four to settle in this district. Upon asking John Clarke at an interview about the district, he replied: "Everything was burnt from here to the hollyhock mark towards Moose Jaw." Later that year many more located in these parts with as many as 20 men in one wagon coming through while others came by horseback and some even walked.

In 1909 the first post office was established with Robert Jolly as the postmaster. It was named Mossbank by a list of names the Inspector of Post Offices had with him. Mossbank being on top of the list, so Mr. Jolly took the first name, Mossbank.

The C.N.R. was built through in 1913 but a store had already preceded it. It was built near the C.N.R.

Mossbank's Community Hall, a building of 40x100 feet with a full size basement, serves the district as a banquet, recreation and dance hall. It has a balcony on three sides of the building.

Station in the fall of 1912 with Lawrence Quinn as first storekeeper. Jim Quinn owned the land on which the townsite of Mossbank was built.

The present townsite laid out in 1913 and the buildings were put up a year later. The C.P.R. was built through 1915 and the north side called Rycraft by the railroad. This caused all the businessmen with the exception of Lawrence Quinn, the first storekeeper, to move their stores to Rycraft. A month later the Village took up a collection to move them back.

In 1917 a fire wiped out the west side of main street and the villagers being undaunted rebuilt it in the same year. In 1922 as a memorial to the soldiers who died overseas, trees were planted along the streets of Mossbank.

Through this time until 1929 Mossbank grew to a population of about 500. Surviving the hungry thirties its population in 1939 was estimated 450. In 1940 Mossbank received an unexpected boost when No. 2 Bombing and Gunnery School, R.C.A.F. was opened 4½ miles east of Mossbank bringing with it a personnel of 2,200 men, when it was operating at full capacity. Homes were opened to them and every available room and building was rented out. From that time till 1946 the population ranged at about 1,150. Business was MIDALE, Sask. — The creamery has been closed here after 30 years of service. Chief reason was lack of business due to continued switch from mixed farming to straight grain farming.

WINNIPEG — The Manitoba power commission will extend electric power to 5,000 farms during 1946, and plans to add an additional 5,000 farms each year until the main settled agricultural areas of the province are serviced, stated Hon. D. L. Campbell, minister of agriculture for Manitoba.

SASKATOON — Steps designed to increase the variety and quantity of western Canadian commodities exported through the northern Manitoba port of Churchill are being planned by the Hudson Bay Route association.

EDMONTON — Alberta Public Works Minister D. B. MacMillan said the key has been found to unlock billions of gallons of oil in sands along the Athabasca River which winds through northern Alberta. He said the government oil-extraction plant at Bitumont, Alta., 250 air miles northeast of Edmonton, produced 400 barrels of oil daily in test run. The plant was built to test feasibility of extracting oil from the sands.

CEYLON, Sank. — Although the total rainfall was 6.17 inches this season, where scientific care had been given summerfallow the previous year, crops ran as high as 20 to 30 bushels per acre in the Ceylon district.

VANCOUVER — A tunnel crossing of the Fraser River between Woodwards Landing and Lander will be the object of a campaign to be launched soon by the newly-formed Lower Fraser Valley Crossing Improvement association.

WINNIPEG — Missing for two days, 19-year-old Rowina Svenson has been located by her parents. The young girl was found as a patient in a city hospital—minus her tonsils. She said she had been told by doctors to go to hospital, but hadn't parents for fear they would forbid it.

CHILLIWACK, B.C. — The B.C. Electric plans to develop a power plant at Jones Lake, about 15 miles east of Chilliwack, according to Lorne R. McPhee, the company's manager here. If a dam and hydro plant were installed at this point, many of the power problems of the upper Fraser Valley would be solved. Mr. McPhee says.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

AS OLD AS YOU FEEL

By ANNA E. WILSON

City Folks Ain't Got No Consideration For Folks In The Country

"HOW you ever stand these flies, Martha," that would be the peevish voice of Cousin Minnie, "is more than I can see. It does seem as if a body might have a little peace in the country after putting up with the city for eleven months of the year."

Dad lowered his paper slowly and looked at Mom, who had just bustled in with a glass of milk and a piece of gingerbread for sister Fannie's boy Sil who was staying the summer and growing so fast you couldn't fill him no matter how much you tried. Sil took the milk and gingerbread and went off to eat them on the back porch and Mom collapsed on a chair. She heaved a sigh now, listening to Cousin Min.

"I forgot to mention the hole in that screen, Dad. With wind so hard to get, I had to tack a piece of netting on it and Sil put his ball through it yesterday. The flies have been coming in all day and with Cousin Min down with her headaches, they do bother her."

But Dad wasn't thinking of Cousin Min. He was thinking of Mom. He'd never seen Mom look so tired. Her face was covered with tiny beads of sweat and you could tell just by the way she sat down that she was just about spent. After all Mom was all of seventy.

Dad hit his pipe and scowled. "Well, if it isn't Cousin Min, it's Sil, and if it isn't Sil it's your Uncle Jeb, and if it isn't Jeb it's that darned netting from morning until night there's never a moment's peace in this house. Tell you what, Mom, city folks ain't got no consideration for folks in the country. Son's the weather's fine they come crowding down for Sunday dinner or they come for their holidays or to stay the summer. Work, work, work, that's all you do, Mom, from May till September and never a word of thanks that I can see or time to sit down and enjoy the good paint job I've done on this porch. Time you had a rest yourself, Mom. What in thunder—"

It was just Uncle Jeb slipping across the back yard in his socks, trying to ease the sore feeling in his feet with the soft feel of the grass, until he hit a stone with his toe. Mom hustled off and rubbed it with arnica.

"Not a bruise showing," she said apologetically, "but Uncle Jeb does like you to fuss a little. Comes of being alone in the world. Tell you what, Dad, fixing up Uncle Jeb makes me think of old Mrs. Frazer Lynn."

Dad wasn't to be sidetracked. "I've made up my mind, Mom," he said grimly. "Come Monday week, they're all going packing. The whole lot, nothing but a bunch of grade A chickens."

Mom laughed. "Now, Dad," she said equally, "quit fussing about things. It's not as if we couldn't afford to give Cousin Min and Sil and Uncle Jeb a holiday. Why, with no children of our own, I wouldn't know how to spend the money Aunt Mary left us, bless her heart!"

"You could spend it," said Dad grimly, "getting Nora to help with the work and taking better care of your arthritis."

"Coddling just cripples you," said Mom firmly. "Now, Dad, as I was saying, it's a nice day to drive over and see old Mrs. Frazer Lynn."

Dad cleared his throat. Mrs. Frazer Lynn was all of Mom's age. A lone body, she'd found the care of her house too much for her and had gone to live in a home near the county seat.

Dad's voice was fretful. "You don't want to be seeing old Mrs. Lynn on a hot day like today."

"Well, it's the only day we've got," said Mom reasonably. "Once the hay starts, the Miller boys'll be staying and it don't give a body a chance to get away. Besides, it's Nora's afternoon off and she's promised to come over and give Cousin Min a bite and look after Jeb and Sil."

All the way over, Mom sat in the front seat, fanning herself to keep cool and enjoying the scenery. Dad wasn't enjoying anything. He'd made up his mind that the summer folks had to go. Mom needed a rest. He took up the argument stubbornly. "Cousin Jeb can go over to his sister, Millie runs a boarding house by the lake and everybody knows lake air's good for old folks.

"Now, Dad," Mom's voice was placid, "Jeb'd be nothing but a maid of all work for Mill and you know he's on his feet all day at that job of his in the city. Says he couldn't keep it up if it wasn't for a month or so down here."

"Jeb goes," said Dad firm, "and Cousin Minnie can take her head-aches and her aspirins over to her brother in Lakewood."

"Now, Dad," Mom wiped her face with a large handkerchief, "Cousin Min does suffer so with that migraine and being librarian in a big city library's close work. Cousin Min's been coming to us for 30 years. That brother of hers has five children and lives in a flat. It's hot and dirty."

"Min goes," said Dad decisively, "cheering on his pipe. 'So does Sil'."

Mom laughed outright. "Sil's set traps down by the creek. Says there's muskrats there. Getting to be a fine boy now he's got away from that city gang. Wouldn't be surprised to see Sil take up farming."

"He won't learn on this farm," said Dad darkly.

"This is the place," said Mom, giving her face another going over and straightening her hat. "Drive right in and park by the outhouse. There's Mrs. Lynn in that armchair, shooting the flies away with a newspaper."

At first, Mrs. Lynn hardly knew them, then she brightened up. "Can't be more than a year I been here and, imagine, here I am forgetting folks already. Seems as if one day's so like another you just lose track."

She eyed Mom wistfully. "You do be looking younger than ever, Mom. It's having things to do and folks to tend after, I expect. Nothing's so aging as the feeling of not being needed anymore."

Mom was in a nag with news of Mrs. Lynn's friends but Mrs. Lynn seemed to lack interest in Mom's gossip. She was apologetic. "Shut off here, you get out of things. Sort of lose track of time. You boys' still with you, Mom. Must be a fine thing watching a young lad grow up. Makes folks young again—almost."

Even Dad could see that Mrs. Lynn was getting tired. Folks here weren't used to much going on around. Dad was thoughtful. Mom wasn't a day younger than Mrs. Lynn, but he could see she was just raring to get back to clean and sew and cook, and coddle Cousin Min and Uncle Jeb and Sil.

They were just turning the corner by the gate when Dad spoke. "Wouldn't surprise me any, Mom, if that old piece of screen wire left over from the porch wasn't around somewhere. Maybe I can tack it to Cousin Min's window and we could have Sil pick up the stones and rake out back—Uncle Jeb does like the feel of the grass on his feet. You know, Mom, sort of makes a man forget he's seventy-five come August, having folks around."

Mr. J. E. Brownlee, K.C., President and General Manager, presented to three hundred delegates constituting the Annual Meeting of United Grain Growers Limited
a report showing a satisfactory fiscal year ending July 31st, last.
Earnings, after setting aside $250,- 000 for patronage dividend on grain receipts of the year were established at $1,155,180.53, to which amount was added $95,705.06 representing profit on disposal of properties to give a total of $1,250,- 886.19. Deductions from this amount totalling $677,809.88 included interest on bonds $68,982.49 Director's fees $9,160, counsel and legal fees and remuneration of sa-lariat directors $55,430. Annual Meeting expense $21,697.39 and provision for depreciation $504,- 540. Taxes on income were estimated at $190,000, leaving $383,076.31 profit for the year. Provision for dividend of 5% on Capital stock amounted to $178,619.25. Discounissued during the year and expenses in connection with the issue of capital stock were completely written off to the amount of $70,251.36. Earned surplus account was carried forward in the amount of $768,206.55, an increase from the previous year of $134,205-30.

The report pointed out that adjusting payments totalling $786,- 000 had been made to customers who sold oats and barley to the Company during the early weeks of the crop year while price ceilings were in effect. Addition of that amount to provision for dividends on patronage and on share capital brought the total for distribution to customers and shareholders from the year's operations of more than $1,200,000.

The balance sheet showed a working capital of $2,900,377.38, an addition during the year of $852,922.85 of which $480,860 amount from issue of new capital stock.

The report stressed the Company's recent expansion by purchase of more than one hundred country elevators, mainly in Saskatchewan, bringing the total in the three prairie provinces to more than 625. In addition terminals are operated at Port Arthur and Vancouver. The year was described as one of the most notable in the company's history.

Delegates present represented 40,000 farmer shareholders in the prairie provinces.

LOCALS

Mrs. E. T. Penny has returned to Calgary from a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. G. Hurst.
A very interesting meeting was held in the Irma United Church on the evening of Wednesday last when the teachers and officers of the Sunday school entertained the parents of their scholars. The Rev.
J. Morris, Sec. of Religious education was present and some good discussions took place. Both parents and teachers found this a profitable evening and it is hoped we will have many similar occasions in the future.

The regular Infant and preschool clinic will be held in the Irma Rest room Friday, Nov. 26.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Clisdell returned last week from a trip to the city where they attended the wedding of Miss Gwen Richards and Mr.
Art Johnson.

The two Clisdell boys have gone to spend the winter in the big woods. We hope they will like a lumberman's life.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lukens at the Wainwright hospital,
Saturday, November 6th a son.

Donald Simmermon spent last week-end in Edmonton visiting at the home of his brother, Bob

Mrs. McLeod left Irma on Friday last for U.S.A., where she plans to spend the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frickleton and Mrs. Targett accompanied her as far as Regina.

Does this cloudy damp weather
mean the end to our Indian summer? Well, one thing we never do is prophesy the weather. We might have the Irma Times in the same spot as the Chicago Tribune on the morning after the Presidential election. But it wouldn't be saying too much to forecast that winter is coming but be it far from us to say when!

LEST WE FORGET

God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over plain and pine;
Lord God hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.
—Verse of Kipling's Recessional.

The LETTER BOX

(The Times is not responsible for opinions expressed under this heading)

When a few weeks ago all the pre-stir of an election was in the air and loyal intelligent citizens were weighing the relative values of the alluring promises of the Social Credit party, the idealism of the CCF, the hard proven facts of Conservatism, we of this constituency voiced ourselves a fiat of electing a man whom we knew would stand staunch against the liquor traffic, for we knew "whatever efforts might try us or fail"
so long as the liquor traffic sluiced
the streets of public opinion, taxes would be difficult to meet, health and prosperity uncertain, fewer highway improvements, less of public utilities in many directions
would all be coming our way.

Only through ignorance and selfishness does vice become debauched and crime increased; but the stamp of the liquor traffic is on them all.

Even in our little village no disturbance or disorderly conduct has ever required to be settled by the constabulary that was not in some way more or less connected with beverage alcohol.

It is such a regrettable fact that so valuable an agent as alcohol is in hundreds of ways, diverted from incalculably useful channels and,
for more profit to the producers,
put to destructive use as a beverage.

Now the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is opening its annual Scientific Temperance Contest that gives, through school opportunity for youth today (adults of tomorrow), to learn through laboratory experiments conducted by themselves, the fact, indubitable, that beverage alcohol means "Death and Destruction" to the health and finances of individual, social, community and national life; and that there are ways innumerable in which alcohol is second only to God's free given water in its value to arts and science,
as in manufacturing, as an unequalled solvent, and an incomparable preservative both of which characteristics render it dangerous as a beverage.

Good Advice

to renters of

Frozen Food Lockers

You save more money quicker if you keep your locker full of meat, vegetables, fruit and poultry. For proof of this consider the following facts—

For rental on a door type locker, you pay $12.50 per year—but if only ten pounds of produce are kept in it, it costs you 12½¢ per pound per year. On the other hand, if you keep 200 lbs. of meat in your locker it only costs you ¾ of a cent per lb. per year. If you put 400 lbs. of produce through your locker it only costs you 3/10 of a cent per pound per year and so on. For more satisfactory saving use a locker.

We have a few vacant lockers at the present time and so urge anyone who wishes to have one to see us NOW. This is the time to put in next summer's meat to save feeding all winter.
